

COORDINARE SE NSW PHN

APNA Festival of Nursing Scholarships

Selection criteria

- Applicants must agree to the conditions of the scholarship as outlined above.
- Applicants must work in a general practice in the COORDINARE catchment.
- Applications will be judged on overall quality.
- Preference may be given to applicants from practices which have not previously engaged with COORDINARE for any funded project.
- Preference will be given to applicants working in practices which operate in areas of high social need with significant chronic disease burden.
- Preference will be given to applicants working in practices which are bulk or mixed billing.
- Preference will be given to applicants working in practices which are accredited or actively seeking accreditation.
- Preference may be given to applicants working in practices which operate or express an interest in nurse led clinics.
- Preference will be given to applicants working in practices which service Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander populations and/or culturally diverse populations.
- Preference may be given to applicants working in practices which are participating in SPDS and/or Lumos, or who express a willingness to participate in these projects.